Jocettes sponsor program

Nov. 15 deadline to nominate for women’s service award

Now is the time to think of nominations for a new Community Service Award, said the Jocettes, a Junior Women’s Club of St. Johns.

Mrs. Richard (Mabel) Wells, chairman of the community service award program, said the Jocettes hope to pick a young woman who will make a real contribution to the community, not just one who will work for her family and the community.

"If only we can save young women who will become leaders today, we may save many problems tomorrow," Mrs. Wells stated.

Any woman may be nominated. Nominations must be in by Oct. 15.

Nomination forms are still available at the Jocettes, 32 W. Washington St., in attendance.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a pink and white carnation bouquet. Mrs. Wells stated that the newlyweds will have a wedding in the Detroit area, and that the reception will be at the home of the bride’s parents.

Squash: try these recipes

By MILLIE B. BEACH

Many New York housewives have a box of squash on their table, and if you have a box of squash, I am sure you would like to know some good recipes to try.

Here are a few that I have found:

1. Peel the squash, cut into pieces and cook until tender. Mash well with a masher. Add salt, pepper, and a little cream cheese. Serve with bread and butter.

2. Cut the squash into wedges, bake until tender. Remove from the oven and cut into small pieces. Mix with mayonnaise and a little chopped onion. Serve as a side dish.

3. Peel the squash, cut into small cubes, and cook until tender. Mix with chopped onion, green pepper, and a little salt. Serve as a vegetable side dish.

It's hectic at school cafeteria

400 eat at their table

By ROY HARRIS
News Staff Writer

Now that it is back to school time, the kitchen of St. Joseph School is turning busy. Mary Cornwell, manager of the cafeteria, and her helpers prepared more than 400 lunches this week. This is as many meals as can be served in the two shifts operation. Mrs. Cornwell and her helpers work as seven days a week. The kitchen is an almost non-stop operation. Mrs. Cornwell says that she and her helpers have to be on their toes all day long. While the kitchen is functioning, the students are not at school. This makes the job of the kitchen workers very difficult. They have to work in a hurry to get the meals prepared before the bell rings. The meals are then served and the students get a chance to eat before they go back to school.

The cooks are divided into two shifts. The first shift runs from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. and the second shift runs from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Each shift is responsible for preparing half of the meals. The cooks work in teams and each team is responsible for a different task. The first team prepares the main dish, while the second team prepares the side dishes. The cooks work together to ensure that the meals are prepared according to the dietary guidelines set by the school district.

The kitchen is equipped with all the necessary equipment to prepare the meals. There are refrigerators, freezers, ovens, and sinks. The kitchen is also equipped with a walk-in cooler and a walk-in freezer. The kitchen is well-organized and clean. The cooks are well-trained and work efficiently to ensure that the meals are prepared on time.

The kitchen staff is also responsible for the cleanliness of the cafeteria. They clean the tables, chairs, and floors after each meal. The kitchen staff also works closely with the teachers to ensure that the students are satisfied with the meals. The cooks are always ready to answer any questions or concerns that the students or teachers may have.

The cooks are proud of their work and are always looking for ways to improve the meals. They are always experimenting with new recipes and trying to incorporate healthy foods into the meals. The cooks are also very committed to the students and work hard to ensure that they get the best meals possible.

The kitchen staff is proud of their work and is looking forward to a busy and successful school year.

The past 20 years have produced the greatest of all consumer goods - automobiles. For many, of course, the automobile and the home have become a way of life. A car has become imperative as a means of transportation. In today's world, many people feel that they cannot live without it. However, the automobile has also brought about a number of problems. With the increased use of cars, roadways have become overcrowded, leading to bumper-to-bumper traffic and increased accidents. Furthermore, the pollution caused by automobile exhaust is a serious issue that needs to be addressed.

The automobile has also had an impact on the environment. The production of cars requires large amounts of resources, and the disposal of old cars is a major environmental problem. In addition, the use of cars has led to increased dependence on non-renewable energy sources, such as gasoline. These issues highlight the need for innovative solutions to reduce the environmental impact of the automobile.

In conclusion, the automobile has brought about both positive and negative effects on society. While it has provided a convenient mode of transportation, it has also contributed to a number of problems. It is important for society to continue to address these issues in order to ensure a sustainable future for all.

The secrets of life and death. We have achieved brilliance, without, apparently, any moral revolution. Another side effect has been the moral revolution; (I suppose) democracy, freedom, widening horizons, new ideas. When we think about the future, we think of a bright new age, a golden age, a utopia.

"And leather looks" invades today's fashion scene

"Leather look" has invaded the current fashion scene to such an extent that it is hard to believe the leather and leatherette garments that are so popular today are not made of real leather. The term "leather look" is applied to garments that are made of various materials and are designed to resemble leather. These materials can include vinyl, polyester, and other synthetic fabrics that are treated to look like the real thing. The popularity of "leather look" garments has grown significantly in recent years, as they offer the stylish appearance of leather without the cost or maintenance that comes with real leather.
Veterans Day 1968

The commitment of the United States to battle in Viet Nam did not come about because of direct attack against the territory or its people. The United States' ultimate determination, on the contrary, was a result of President Johnson's decision to send troops to South Vietnam. Our immediate survival is not the reason young men are called upon to fight as they were, for example, on the day of Pearl Harbor. Then the threat could be easily seen; there was nothing abstract about it. And, yet, World War II was "the war to end wars." The young men were called, and the nation responded behind them.

Now, in the jungles of Asia, they fight again, and this time perhaps for the most urgent cause of all— to gain time in which the governments of the two great nuclear powers can recognize the realities of this age and that they have created and learn new ways to settle their differences.

Veterans Day is observed on Nov. 11, for the purpose of honoring those veterans living and dead who have served in the U.S. armed forces in time of war. Special honor should be accorded to the veterans of Viet Nam—the men who still fight there and those who have yet to go. They do more than defend our country's honor and ideals which in itself would be enough. They are buying time for the survival of civilization itself.

He doesn't take one; or two drug for the express purpose of becoming as a harmless diversion that can provide urgent cause of all—to gain time in which our immediate survival is.
