

2000-13

RESOLUTION TO SUPPORT GERALD LOUDENSLAGER FOR MAC BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

FINANCE AND PERSONNEL COMMITTEE
AUGUST 17, 2000

WHEREAS, Commissioner Loudenslager has served as a St. Joseph County Commissioner since 1992; and

WHEREAS, Commissioner Loudenslager has served his County with dedication and honor on the local Community Mental Health Board and executive committee, Human Services Commission Chair-Elect; Human Services Commission Financial Committee Chair; Judiciary Committee Chair; Physical Resource Committee Chair; Historic Courthouse Restoration Project Coordinating Vice-Chair; Board of Public Works; Schools at Work; and

WHEREAS, Commissioner Loudenslager is active in the Keyperson organization and currently serves as Chairman of this group; and

WHEREAS, Commissioner Loudenslager has served on the Michigan Association of County (MAC) Mental Health Committee since becoming elected eight years ago and was also appointed Chair of the new MAC Human Services Committee in August of 1996 and serves on the sub-committees of Mental Health, Public Health, and Family Independence Agency; and

WHEREAS, since his election to the MAC Board of Directors in 1997, Commissioner Loudenslager has served as liaison with the human services committee and on the personnel committee and has attended all MAC Board meetings with the Governor,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Clinton County Board of Commissioners fully supports the re-election of Gerald E. Loudenslager to the MAC Board of Directors for Region 3 and urges the support of Counties in Region 3.

Commissioner Arehart moved, supported by Commissioner Bauerle to recommend supporting Mr. Gerald Loudenslager for the MAC Board of Directors and hand deliver the Resolution to the MAC Conference being held August 20, 2000 at Sault Ste. Marie. Motion carried.
