The urban renewal story

'New' downtown for St. Johns not new idea

Evidently proposals for replacing the existing business district of St. Johns are not entirely new. Mayor Melvin Sehlke announced recently that plans for a new downtown for St. Johns not new idea.

HOSPITAL'S FIRST BABY OF 1967

Clinton Memorial Hospital missed having a New Year's day baby again this year, but at any rate the first child born during 1967 arrived 5 hours 9 minutes earlier than 1966's first. Mrs Marvina Sahl of Church Road, R-4, St. Johns, gave birth to an 8 1/2-ounce girl Monday morning, Jan. 1, 2011, and she was the first baby in the hospital in 1967. The baby, named Pamela Kay, has a hospital, Mary Ann, and two brothers, Allen, 8, and David, 5, at home. Grandparents are Mr and Mrs Richard Sahl and Mrs Stanley Welt, all of St. Johns.

Local use of blood stirs interest in Jan. 11 bloodmobile

January marks a new year for blood donors, and Clinton County is no exception. With the New Year comes a new bloodmobile, and Clinton County is eagerly awaiting its arrival.

The bloodmobile, a mobile unit that travels from county to county, will be visiting Clinton County on January 11th. This unit is equipped with all the necessary equipment to collect blood donations and is staffed by experienced donors.

The bloodmobile is an important part of the blood donation process. It provides a convenient and comfortable setting for people to donate blood, while also allowing for the collection of multiple units of blood in a single day.

The importance of blood donation cannot be overstated. Blood is a vital resource that is used in a variety of medical procedures, including surgeries, treatments for blood disorders, and transfusions for patients in need.

In Clinton County, the local blood donor community plays a crucial role in ensuring a steady supply of blood. With the arrival of the bloodmobile, residents are encouraged to donate blood, as it is a simple and effective way to help others in need.

Regardless of where you live, blood donors are needed. From small towns to large cities, blood donations are critical to the health and safety of our communities. So, if you're interested in donating blood, contact your local blood donation center or look for the bloodmobile in your area.

A thank you to all donors who have made a difference in the lives of others through their blood donation. Together, we can make a positive impact on the health of our communities.

City manager reviews old, looks at new year

Sidewalks, trees, rubbish among '67 problems facing city

Problems with sidewalks, trees, and rubbish abound in the City of St. Johns during the new year, according to Mr. Greer.

Other problems will include water and sewer rates, the City's new 1967 budget, and parking meters.

The city will also address the question of where the park land is to be located.

Mr. Greer said that the city will not consider the question of whether or not to expand the parkland until after the new year.

In the meantime, the city will continue to look at the question of whether to expand the parkland.

The city will also address the question of whether to expand the parkland.

AN EYE ON THE WORLD

The fascination of a globe... at the eye zoom over the world map, notice the different countries and continents... try to imagine what life was like in each of these places. Yes, every spot on the globe has its particular need. Solutions is a need felt in that one place alone. Yet, in a sense, every place is the same, for all countries are made up of people. And all people have the same basic needs. One of these needs is faith — faith in a God who also has an eye on our world — faith in a God who listens, and who gives meaning to life and eternity. Your own Bible has this need. You can answer that need by attending church, and discovering the strength and joy which come through regular worship.

Economists aim at farm inflation

Recent visits to the Independence, Mo., plant of Allis-Chalmers included from (left) Dale Holzick, Clarence Meents, Harry Patterson Jr., and Gene Knopp from the St. Johns area, Patterson, of Patterson and Son, Inc., described features of a "Claw" combine being exhibited. He had arranged a "fly-in" from Lansing for more than 40 of his customers in a chartered DC-6B plane. The group also visited the Truman Library and Ames Steel plant.

10% of county wooded, but productive woodlot numbers still on decline

By ELTON C. TWORK

The Michigan Dept. of Conservation estimates that only 10 per cent of the 209,000 acres of the county is covered by a woodlot. The total productive woodlot acreage in Clinton County is estimated at 20,900 acres. The Michigan Department of Conservation operates a woodlot program which is designed to help farmers and others interested in developing woodlots. The program provides technical assistance, training, and financial aid to those who wish to improve their woodlots. The woodlot program is funded through federal and state funds. The program is administered by the Michigan Department of Conservation, which is a division of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

Cost-share available under ACP

Farmers may request cost-share assistance to help cover the cost of improving their woodlots. The cost-share assistance is available under the Agricultural Conservation Program (ACP). The ACP is a federal program that provides financial aid to farmers for the construction and maintenance of farm ponds, drainage ditches, and other water conservation practices. The program also provides assistance for other activities that help improve water quality on farms. The cost-share assistance is provided on a 50/50 basis, with the farmer contributing 50% of the project cost. The ACP is administered by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), and is available to farmers in all 50 states.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

With new possibilities of both new markets and new prices, farmers must take a fresh look at their operations. The Michigan Agricultural Marketing Board is working with farmers to help them identify new opportunities and to develop new marketing strategies. The board is also working with state and federal agencies to promote new markets and to help farmers develop new products.

DOMESTIC GOVERNMENT

Agriculture

The government is working to ensure the continued growth of American agriculture. The government is committed to helping farmers and ranchers succeed, and is working to ensure that they have access to the markets and resources they need to thrive. The government is also working to ensure that the agricultural sector remains strong and that it continues to contribute to the nation’s economy.

TIMBERRR! City tackles problem of dead trees

St. Johns' city commission jumped into the tree business last week when they authorized City Manager George to see some bids on the removal of dead trees in the city. This has been a problem for some time in the city, and has grown more serious of late.

Most of the problem is along the streets, between the curb and the highway. The city is directly responsible for any accidents that might occur because of falling limbs from trees located in that strip.

There are so many trees involved that the city can't possibly take them all down on its present budget. Commissioner Mrs. Jean Rand suggested possibly a bond issue to provide the money. Commissioner John Davis agreed on this but said the city can't possibly take them all down in a year, and so the city will probably use the money for a soil bank program. He had been offered to take down as many trees as possible. This is good. Maybe next year's budget can include money to put into the soil bank.

Most of the tree felling that was done last week was on the city's property. The tree felling will be done as soon as possible.
Another factor was a technical school request from MSU. The recommendation that MSU's preceptorial committee refused the special committee's approval to the new medical school at Michigan. The MSU plan was reconsidered in light of the recognized dire need for doctors for Michigan's citizens. What is very hard to see now is how much more work will be needed to fulfill the obligation to supply of sufficient doctors for the citizens of Michigan. The medical training course. The recommendation has been examined and reaffirmed in this reconsideration. Now is the right time to give serious thought to expansion of this medical training course. Taking into account the urgent demand for training doctors for the people, decision on 4-year medical training course is to be made.
OPEN LETTER
FROM VAN W. HOAG

Dear Friends,

Let me introduce a friend of yours, who owed the South many years of untiring service, and who may be of help at the time of your need. He is a man of high character, and in the business of funeral directors. For his kindness and understanding, I have the highest respect and admiration. He is Mr. Tisdale, and I recommend him to you without reservation. He is a man of deep responsibility, and I know you will find him worthy of your confidence.

Sincerely,
