Snowmobile handling and safety

The St Johns physical education dept. conducted safety classes once a day last week. All 3000 children were instructed by their physical education teacher. The programs, which included group discussions, demonstrations and practical use of snowmobiles, were subject to study report cards and inspections. During the program, safety techniques such as: using the proper helmet, clothing, goggles, and ski boots, were reviewed. Children were also instructed on how to use the snowmobile safely in case of an emergency. The program was designed to provide children with the knowledge and skills necessary to handle snowmobiles safely and responsibly. Through the program, children were taught the importance of safety in all activities.

Consumer price index

Chloe Folligott

Clinton County Home Economist

Last week we talked about the consumer price index, a measurement of change in the prices paid by consumers for a basket of goods and services. This week we'll look at ways you can use the CPI to your advantage.

- A measurement of change in the price level is a tool for determining how much a basket of goods and services costs.

- It's important to know the inflation rates for different items to better manage one's budget.

- Comparing the price of a product or service before and after inflation can help in making purchasing decisions.

These indices are useful for budgeting, as they provide information about changes in prices that can affect household finances. By understanding how prices have changed over time, consumers can make better-informed decisions about their spending.

The CPI measures the average change in prices paid by consumers for a basket of goods and services. This index includes a variety of goods and services, such as food, shelter, medical care, and transportation. By tracking inflation, you can better understand how the cost of living has changed over time and make adjustments to your budget accordingly.

Inflation is calculated using a method called the Consumer Price Index (CPI). The CPI is a measure of the change in the price level of a basket of goods and services purchased by consumers. It is calculated by comparing the cost of a basket of goods and services in a base year with the cost of the same basket of goods and services in a later year. The CPI is then expressed as a percentage change from the base year.

In summary, understanding inflation and its impact on the consumer price index can help you make more informed decisions about your purchases and budgeting. By staying informed about inflation trends, you can better manage your finances and make adjustments as needed to maintain your standard of living.

Are you one of the 40 million people who will retire without a pension?

Now there's good news from CNB. If you have no employer-sponsored retirement plan, read on to see how we can help you take advantage of a new tax shelter to create a substantial retirement income for yourself.

Under a new federal law, millions of wage and salary earners can now set aside as much as $1500 of tax-free income annually for their retirement.

To help you take maximum advantage of this new tax shelter, Central National Bank now offers Individual Retirement Accounts—special savings accounts that can multiply a surprisingly modest investment into a substantial retirement savings.

A double tax savings. The boon of a CNB Individual Retirement Account is that both the money you put into it and the interest your money earns while on deposit, are tax exempt until the time of withdrawal. This means you can take a tax deduction on the amount deposited into your IRA each year. Allow the earnings to accumulate tax-free, then withdraw your money when you retire and you are more likely to be in a lower tax bracket.

As you can see from our chart, this can mean a spectacular savings compared to an ordinary savings account.

Who qualifies?
Anyone who is not now covered by an employer-sponsored retirement plan, may open an Individual Retirement Account at CNB.

15% of your income tax-free.

By new law, you may put away as much as 15% of your annual earned income—up to a maximum of $1500—into an IRA. This means that you can choose any of our CNB savings plans that best suits your needs. Our Time Deposits, for example, earn you a full 7-1/2% interest, are automatically renewable, and may be started with as little as $50.

For the maximum possible return on your investment, however, you should look into our Investment Savings Certificates that are guaranteed to earn you a full 7-1/2% interest over six years in amounts of $1000 or more. (By contract, our chart is figured on a 6% conservative 6% annual interest).

However—there is a substantial interest penalty for withdrawal before maturity. Your money is safe—and available.

When you build a retirement income through an Individual Retirement Account at CNB, your money is protected by the federal government, and backed by the substantial assets of one of this area's fastest growing banks. Act now. There has never been a better time to begin providing for a comfortable retirement than right now.

Interest rates at CNB have never been higher. And now you can put this higher interest to work for you with tax-free income.

Why not look into an Individual Retirement Account today? The officer at your nearby CNB office will be happy to help.
