Bill Nash — reflections of new DeWitt Twp chief who took reins of controversy-laden department

BY LINDA BEITNER

DEWITT TWP. — November. DeWitt Police Chief Bill Nash took over a department clouded with politics, fragmented police-personnel and fraught with the organizational problems that have been hurdles in the past.

Nash, who is a seasoned cop — 30 years — who has been involved in the DeWitt Police department for years, said he hopes to bring about a new era of respect and professionalism. "I've been with the department for 30 years, and I've seen the good, the bad and the ugly," he said. "I want to bring a new perspective to the department, to provide better response to calls and improve the quality of service to the community."

Some of the growing pains the department has been subjected to, Nash said, is the addition of a full-time officer, who was part of the department's political troubles before he took over. "The addition of full-time officers has produced changes in the department," he said. "With the new officer, we've had to make adjustments to the department's structure and operations."

However, Nash also said he has received a great deal of positive feedback from the community. "The community has been very supportive of the changes we've made," he said. "I think we're on the right track, and I'm confident we'll continue to improve."

WARNING!

"CHILDREN'S HIDDEN ENEMY"

Children get lead poisoning when they eat bits of paint that contains it. It's silent. An adult may not even notice the paint on their nails or fingers. But within hours, the stain may be removed. The child becomes ill. In short order, the paint will take its toll. This is why a paint check is necessary. There are places where the paint is peeling and must be removed all loose pieces. Then, the paint is removed and a primer is applied. This process is repeated until all loose paint is removed. The result is a healthy, safe home. Always keep the floor and painting area clean. This is the way to do it right. Always ask your local building supply store for advice on paint use and safety.

When to Paint Your Stairway

The best time to paint your staircase is the day before your child is to return from school. This is because children can pick up and spread lead dust around the house. The best time to paint is Thursday or Friday. The walls and ceiling should be painted first, followed by the stairway. This will minimize the amount of lead dust that is spread around the house.

THE CUTTING AND ARRANGEMENT OF ROSES

INITIAL STEPS

1. Roses will be ready if they are cut in the late afternoon or very early morning, when their sap content is highest.
2. Cut your rows on an angle with a sharp knife or pruning shear, just below the outer leaf bud that is visible.
3. Place blooms immediately in a vase, water, and flower food solution. If blooms are non-perishable, place in a humid environment.
4. "Conditioning" or "bunching" blooms by having them stand in a cool dark place without drafts for 3 to 4 hours—or even overnight—if you can put them in the refrigerator for this conditioning, it's much better.
5. Before arranging, remove the leaves toward the bottom.
6. Cut flowers on an angle—never up from below and will never stand up straight.

Furnishings Expert Offers Shopping Tips

"You don't have to build a new home to have a new home. You do not have to buy a house full of furniture to start a new environment."

"There are basic rules," said Margaret Ward, home economist for the Southern Furniture Manufacturers Association. She also has ideas on how to approach home decorating, arising with careful planning, budgeting, and analysis of individual needs.

"With them," she continued, "you may transform the houses you already own into inviting homes that are uniquely yours."

Developing a plan before purchasing furniture is a major step in saving, Miss Ward said. Furniture preferences can be discovered by reading magazines, newspapers and books, and installing modern, useful rooms, homes and stores.

Checking several rooms will show the home decorator, she concluded, what furniture is available, how various effects can be created with the same type of furniture, and which styles appeal to the purchaser when they are seen firsthand.

"Your name is Miss Ward," she said, "Shopping for furniture is the shopping for a new one. It is the shopping for a new home."

"Unless you know furniture, as a mechanic knows his tools, you may transform the old house to have a new home."

"Margaret Ward, home economist for the Southern Furniture Manufacturers Association."

Let's not penalize earnings by our "Older Americans"

Ed Note: The following is a statement by Lloyd Wright, American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees:

So many specials days and months have been designated to honor so many different groups that we are beginning to lose our occasions. But May, "Older Americans Month," merits attention for what it means to our nation. Our seniors have done so much for our nation and what we can do for their people who have served us well in the past.

As we approach America's 50th anniversary, if there is something truly worth celebrating about our nation, surely that whom the month honors deserve much of the credit. They are the ones who fought our wars, built our cities and proved the dynamic quality of both our form of government and our economic institutions in periods of depression and abundance.

But we honor them not at all if we think only of their past contributions. For they represent one of our nation's most valuable resources. Their wisdom and experience and talent is needed in every area of national life.

What our nation needs most to do for them today is to expand their opportunities for involvement; to remove from our society every vestige of age-discrimination. Our goal should be to insure for older Americans the same freedom of choice which they enjoyed in youth. That means better working, transportation and leisure.

Through such organizations as the American Association of Retired Persons we will help the senior citizen group with more than six million members—they are charging all of us with the task of free choice for those in earlier years.

That organization is currently engaged in a campaign to remove from the Social Security law the earnings limitation provision which now prevents many who need to work from doing so because of inadequate retirement income. Under current law, retired persons in their 65th year lose 50 cents of Social Security for each dollar they earn.

But wealthy retirees with unlimited "unearned income" are not limited in the amount they can earn. The result, of course, is not only to deny those older citizens the independence they want to survive but to remove one of the sense of meaningful identity that flows from productive work.

Congress must act in order that Americans by remaining active in the Social Security law, along with every other provision of law or practice that robs them of their dignity and independence.
