St. Johns graduates spread out in preparation for careers

St. John High School's 1968 graduates made some already carved out, are now entering their final preparations for careers and "are in the planning stage". Our pioneer has been named June Warren. Among the graduates of 1968 are those in the following class list whose names are preceded by an asterisk.

St. Johns High School's 1968 Valedictorian this year was Robert W. Lundy, and salutatorian was Samuel E. Mooney. City commission changes meetings

The St. Johns City Commission has changed its meeting dates.

The governing body will hold its regular and fourth Monday night meetings, which were scheduled, as usual, for Monday night, July 7, and Monday night, July 28. The meetings will continue to be held at 7 p.m. in the City Commission room.

Fire contracts are extended

The City of St. Johns has extended fire protection contracts with several companies to provide more time to negotiate new agreements with the companies.

The contracts running from July 1, 2003 to June 30, 2004, are being extended for another year. The city said the extension would provide time for the city to negotiate new contracts with other companies. The contracts are now set to expire on July 1, 2005.

We've got a 'sister city'!

The State of Michigan has a sister sister-in-law town in St. Johns, Michigan. A formal proclamation from the city council last week by Mayor John Johns, made St. Johns a sister city to a sister city to a small town in the sister state of Tennessee.

The proclamation was made to honor the city's sister city relations with sister states. The city has sister cities in sister states of Tennessee and Michigan.

St. Johns girl wins Dumas scholarship

The Clinton County chapter of the National Foundation for Blind Students has awarded a $3,000 scholarship to a local student. The scholarship was awarded to Alexandra G. Dewitt, a senior at St. Johns High School, for her academic achievements and community involvement.

The National Foundation for Blind Students is a national organization that provides scholarships to blind students who wish to continue their education. The foundation has awarded more than $1 million in scholarships to more than 1,000 blind students since its inception.

Onward

The American Legion Post 4113 held its annual Picnic at the Soo Campground in St. Johns. The picnic was held June 30 and was attended by many local veterans and their families.

Flag Enlarged

The St. Johns United States Flag flies by over the Capitol building on Monument Square.

The city council had previously approved the purchase of a new flag for the city, but had not yet had the chance to install it. The new flag will be installed on July 4, 2003.

102 from 13 attend 13th Yesteryears Party

WACOUSTA — Mrs. Veda Forward led a group of 102 persons into the spacious auditorium of the Methodist Church for the 13th annual Yesteryears Party at Wacousta last Thursday afternoon.

The party was a celebration of the lives of 102 persons who have reached the age of 75 or over, and it was a fitting tribute to their long and active contributions to their communities.

Mrs. Veda Forward, who organized the party, welcomed the guests and thanked them for their attendance. She said that the party was not just a celebration of age, but a celebration of the vitality and energy that these seniors bring to their communities.

The program included a variety of entertainment, including music, dance, and storytelling. The guests were also treated to a delicious lunch served by the church's catering committee.

The highlight of the day was the installation of a new queen, Elizabeth Lawrence, who was chosen for her dedication to community service and her warmth and generosity.

Mrs. Lawrence was presented with a sash, a crown, and a bouquet of flowers, and she was sworn in as the new queen of the Yesteryears Party.

The party concluded with a传统的 dance, and everyone had a wonderful time celebrating the lives of these remarkable seniors.

Mrs. Veda Forward, who is the organizer of the annual Yesteryears Party, said that it is a tradition to invite the oldest person in the county to the party, and this year, it was Mrs. Lawrence, who is 83 years old.

She said that the party is a way to recognize the contributions of these seniors and to show them how much they are appreciated.

"It's a wonderful day," she said. "It's a day to celebrate life and to celebrate the seniors in our community."

1970 census: Big Motorboat

Over five years, the census bureau has been collecting data questions to your home. Some people do not even return the forms sent to them.

Some of the areas of questionnaires are not as high as the census bureau would like. Some people are not answering the questions correctly. Some people are not answering at all. Others are answering in a way that is not correct.

On the other hand, it appears that the people who answered the questions correctly have answered in a way that is correct.

We have to remember that there is a difference between what we want to know and what we can find out.

Library project continues

In contrast to the usual boisterousness of the Michigan State University Library's annual meeting, which featured poet Dana Gioia as the keynote speaker, the meeting this year was a low-key affair focused on practical issues.

Library director John Johns, who presided over the meeting, said the library's budget for the fiscal year was $2.6 million.

He noted that the library had made strides in digital publishing, and that its collection of electronic resources had grown by 15% in the past year.

The meeting was also a chance for librarians to network and share ideas.

A seminar on the latest trends in library management was held, and a panel discussion on the future of library collections took place.

The meeting concluded with a reception, during which librarians could mingle and discuss the issues they had discussed throughout the day.

The library is currently working on a project to digitize its rare book collection, which includes works from the 15th to 19th centuries.

The project is expected to take several years, but the library is confident it will be completed.

In other news, the library's patrons have responded positively to the new hours, with usage up by 20% since the change was implemented.

Johns said he was looking forward to the next year, which promises to be a busy one for the library.
Chesaning Showboat set for July 15-20 appearances

Chesaning Showboat, under the direction of Jim Stoddard, is scheduled to bring its unique blend of entertainment to the Shiawassee River area from July 15 to 20. Off the Helen Ford, a motorized semisubmersible showboat docked at the Ninemile Park in Chesaning, the boat will offer nightly shows featuring a diverse array of skilled performers.

The showboat is renowned for its talented acts, including a knife thrower, a puppeteer, and a doveriod, a crowd-pleaser known for his unique ability to interact with his audience. Pat and Cash, another popular act, will charm the audience with their whimsical comedy.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF

Brown seeking reelection

Congressman Garry Brown’s, the incumbent representative of the United States Congress for Michigan’s Third District, has announced that he will seek re-election as the representative from his district. A veteran of five terms in Congress, Brown is a prominent figure in the Republican Party and has made significant contributions to the Michigan delegation. His interest and expertise in the areas of urban policy, international trade, and government efficiency have also won him appreciative recognition.

Treasurer in Michigan's Third District

Brown, who has served in various capacities within the Michigan Constitutional Convention and has been active in state and local politics, was elected chairman of the Lansing Citizens for Mental Retardation. Mrs. Lela Canfield, the new chairperson, represents the county on the board of representatives from various state and local mental institutions.

New elementary building

According to Kenneth Thelen, director of the Shiawassee County Department of Education, the board of education in Chesaning will be able to proceed with the construction of a new elementary building. The new school will contain two special education classrooms, a music room, and a library. The board will accept bids in September or October for the construction of the new building.

Mervin Griffin Fund

Don Fowler—With the voters' approval of a school millage and bond issue, the board of education in Chesaning will have the funds needed to construct a new elementary building. Fowler, who is a candidate for the upcoming election, has made the construction of a new school a priority in his campaign.

NEW ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Fowler school bids to be sought in fall

Bids will be sought for the design and construction of the new elementary school in Chesaning. The school will replace the old building and will serve the growing community. The project is expected to be completed by fall of the current year.

Chesaning Showboat

Bar Association has new officers

New officers for the Clinton County Bar Association were installed last week at the quarterly meeting held in St. Johns. Serving as the association's president for the upcoming year will be the Clinton County Treasurer Tommy Fox. Robert Swain, the association's secretary, will continue in his role.

An attorney from Grand Rapids, Thomas Tucker, will be one of the associations' new members. His expertise in employment law will be a valuable asset to the association.

Spicer resigns at Foerler

The village council meeting was held Monday night, June 10, at the Foerler village hall. Mayor George Thelen, in absentia, appointed Marjorie Thelen, the new president of the village council. The council meeting was then adjourned.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Armbruster of the Catholic Order of Foresters last Thursday, June 13, were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Armbruster, of Fowler. They were their children and grandchildren.

Funeral was Tuesday.

The family picnic will be on lot 25 for their monthly meeting with Mrs. Barry Sillman Wednesday, June 15 in honor of their 30th wedding anniversary. Present were their children and grandchildren and also attended her brother, Carl Koenigsknecht, the new president. Pauline Miller, Lynn Miller, Magdalene Motz, Ruhala Miller, and Walter Miller.

By Mrs. Wilbur Bancroft, Maple Rapids Homecoming in late July with Mary Alice Paine as co-hostess. Prizes were awarded at a movie for Vacation.
The thousands of men who have fought in the war are because the production of many of our natural resources are being used for the war effort. Therefore, we must use our resources wisely.

The fresh fruit is a great source of vitamins and minerals. However, they need to be handled carefully to retain their nutritional value.

The use of fresh vegetables to make canning and freezing is important. Squeezed, increased demand for non-fat milk has made milk a desirable choice for those on special diets or space travelers.

The use of fresh herbs and spices in cooking has increased considerably in the past 10 years. We have made a dietary step, in my opinion. First, it should be allowed to reach room temperature, then pour the marinade over the steak. Turn several times during cooking process.

The research shows that 50 percent of the people eat a balanced diet. Among the 41 students from Michigan named to the dean's list, Cropsey makes dean's list.

Love is trust. It is belief. It is faith, and like faith it is the sustenance of all things hoped for. Faith is a young man and woman standing before the altar to be married. It is a little child holding his mother's hand. It is a patient healing into the hope of the doctor. It is a mother or father giving up to a sin, off to war...

Faith is all this and more! It is trust in another's presence, a belief in joy or sorrow, it is all mankind meeting God in quiet prayer...at home...in church...or under the canopy of leaves.

Church is far all of us—place to be worshiped, to be blessed, to sustain our faith. You can make your daily voyage by going to church this Sunday.

INTERESTING EVENTS IN VARIOUS PARTS OF COUNTY KEEP 4-H FUN DAY YOUTHS BUSY

The recent 4-H Conservation Fun Day enabled 4-H members from all over Clinton County to learn more about nature and to have some fun at the same time. In left picture Sheldon C. Holmes (dressed in dark clothing), soil scientist leader with the 1st-County soil survey party, and Robert Yager, assistant for the Mid-Michigan District Health Department, show 4-Hers at the conservation fun day how they conduct a soil percolation test. This was done during the afternoon session.

Earlier on the day's program was a stop at the St. Johns Hardwood Lumber Co. on County Farm Road south of St. John's. Harold Hamilton of the company answers questions (in picture at right) for Christina Haviland, Diana Haviland and Yeonne Haviland.

JUNIOR DIRECTORS HAVE A MESSAGE

The check for the apportionment was 'sent to the area schools with the Teachers' Interest formula. . . . and one-half of the money is available at a national average of 4 percent of the farm equity. The benefit of this interest is to the farmer for planting less than 100 acres.

THE 1969 national wheat allotment has been released. The 1969 voluntary wheat program was announced for farmers who have been wheat farmers during the past 10 years. The allotment price is $1.00 per bushel. The voluntary wheat program will be much the same as in 1968 and is not expected to divert acreage below the allotment. The canola program will be much the same as in 1968.

RAMBLIN' WITH RINK

All about (gasp!) jogging

All of the world's great distances are run because one person in the race thought he could do it.

No one ever runs for nothing--not even for the sake of jogging.

Most sports are played by the people who do them. Jogging is played by the people who watch the players.

No matter how far you jog, it will always be on and will be a rallying factor for Americans in specific circumstanees, and for the physical and moral improvement of the human race.

We are not necessarily advocating the change in our national anthem, but we think Americans should consider it.

Slightly better than 50 per cent were organized and compiled into state departments, courts, and agencies during the first five months of 1968, reports the Michigan Education Association. From January 1, several laws were passed, bills introduced, and a new set of compiled laws must come into being. MEA notes that in previous years only these compilations approved by voters were submitted to the State Department of Legislation.

ELECTRIC WATER HEATERS CAN BE INSTALLED ANYWHERE

Adaptability—the one of the outstanding features of a compact, fan-cooled Electric Water Heaters. Because it requires only an outlet—208 or 240 volt, it can be put back under a stairway or even inside a closet or under a counter. That means you can use it in your own backyard—on a deck or a patio. And it does away with the need for two separate units, one for the water and the other for the fuel. Its electric, and it's warm! You'll probably sleep better, 'N sometimes thoughts come pretty slow, 'Scarcely rates a golden crown, Who have used the antidote, Oft escape come proper time; Best I get 'em jotted downl

The news article discusses various local events and updates. A house fire in Grand Ledge is reported, with Delta on the scene for an hour. Another house had a complete blaze when noticed by a neighbor. Grand Ledge fire department and a water tanker from Orange Jumbo responded. Firefighters fought the blaze for an hour.

Additionally, an article mentions the opening of Betty Gordon's shop in Wacousta. Mrs. Gary Lee Nostrand, who was with Mrs. Veda Forward as general chairman of the affair, attended the Ballinger family reunion at Fitzgerald Park in Grand Ledge.

The article also notes the wedding of Mr. Don Locke and family visited relatives in Connecticut to visit their Crystal Lake cottage. They spent the weekend at Maple Rapids.

Lastly, there is a mention of a wedding reception of the former Juanita Kirsch at Horseshoe Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boss attended the reception.
