PROBLEM SKIN

Why It Affects Teenagers

These are the wonderful teen years — a string of height, shakiness, "new-person" looks that can mean a lot to you, when you long to look your prettiest, brightest, smartest self to appear. Under as it may seem — the teen years are often the most troublesome years for complexion. As you grow, your skin changes in character. The happy skin of youth, bright and smooth, may become dull, dry, oily, or problem skin. Many girls and boys are trying to find solutions to their skin problems. For you, the solution may lie in learning the right steps to take for your skin.

Research evidence also shows that in addition to this discussible phenomenon occurring under the skin, other factors play a role. Skin problems may result from tension, stress, lack of proper rest, inadequate hygiene habits, and — in some cases — allergic reactions can all contribute to blemish formation.

All Clear Medicated complexion products help to remove surface impurities by purifying skin oil — often the cause of blackheads — and in the disposal of those impurities. As medi­cated All Clear exists in cleansing up these conditions, it also beautifies your complexion. It's gentle against your skin's delicate, sensitive skin. It's more than a cleanser and an occasional cleanser, connect with your skin's needs. The All Clear has been extracted from seldom to any extent. A bottle of All Clear cleanser is sold by all the retailers of the world.

Healthy young men and women are increasingly falling victims to “motorcycleitis.” Within a few weeks of each other during the past year, the New York Safety Council, the American Medical Association, and the Greater New York Traffic Council all issued educational safety campaigns. Farm Loan Act marks 50th anniversary

For more than 50 years, farmers have been able to borrow money for agricultural purposes through the Farm Loan Act. But just how many farmers are able to borrow money under this act this year? And what is the history of the Farm Loan Act?

In 1916, the Farm Loan Act was signed into law by President Wilson. The act provided for the establishment of Federal Land Banks and authorized the Federal Farm Loan Board to make loans to farmers for the purchase of land. The act was initially aimed at providing credit for the purchase of farmland, but it has since been expanded to include a wide range of agricultural activities.

The act has been amended several times over the years, with the most recent amendment occurring in 1987. The amendments have included changes to the eligibility requirements for loan applicants, as well as changes to the maximum loan amounts that can be obtained.

The Farm Loan Act has been an important source of credit for American farmers, and it has helped to support the growth of the agricultural industry. The act has also been an important source of economic stability for rural communities, as it has helped to ensure that farmers have access to the credit they need to operate their farms.

Bicyclist should know the laws of the road

Within the past month, St. Johns has had three road accidents involving children on bicycles.

Lately we have had calls from interested adults who want their kids to ride a bicycle without informing them of the correct and lawful way in which to ride it is wrong.

Driving a bicycle is more dangerous than driving a car, especially for those who are inexperienced in the needs of their children. In addition, we know how to control their children in order to avoid accidents.

We don’t blame the children as much as we do the parents. To give your child a bicycle to ride is too much. But, to give your child a bicycle without informing them of the correct and lawful way in which to ride it is wrong.

Two or more children ride their bicycles as if they were driving a car. Many pull out in front of cars as if they were driving cars. As a result, drivers are hit by them.

Most drivers do everything humanly possible to avoid such an accident. But, the time occurs when a driver has no choice in the matter and an accident will happen.

Correct your bicyclist now and set him straight. When you have them corralled in a hospital bed, its too late.

In Michigan, tax reform will rise again.

Assuming the Democrats maintain control of the 29-member Michigan House of Representatives after the November 1972 elections in 1972, they will lead a tax-cutting reform campaign on the state tax structure, according to House Majority Leader Bert Bowers, D-Saginaw.

Though Democrats might be inclined to not press a reform package this year, Bowers said, the party has heard "the silent majority" cry for reform as never before. He said he knew the legislature can determine the future of the state when "the Governor and state senators are named to a new two-year term." That will happen on Nov. 7.
