To the Voters of the 10th Congressional District...:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the support you have given me in my campaign for the Michigan State Senate. I am deeply grateful for your vote and support which has enabled me to serve in the State Senate during these past two years.

As your Senator, I have always been concerned with the education of our young people. That is why I have sponsored bills providing for state aid to public schools and for educational programs for the underprivileged.

In an effort to improve educational facilities, I have worked with the State Legislature to increase funding for schools, including vocational education programs. I have also been involved in promoting the expansion of community colleges and technical institutes.

I want to assure you that I will continue to work toward improving the quality of education in our state. I believe strongly in providing our students with the best possible educational opportunities to help them prepare for successful careers.

Thank you again for your support.

To the Editor:

I recently had the opportunity to attend a flying lesson and I must say it was an exhilarating experience. Flying lessons provide an opportunity for people to learn the fundamentals of piloting and gain a deeper appreciation for the challenges faced by pilots. They can also be a fun and rewarding way to spend a day outdoors. I highly recommend giving a flying lesson a try. It can be an experience that stays with you for a lifetime.

Sincerely,

Australian farmer views American agriculture

ST. JOHNS - John Hawkins, an Australian wheat farmer, is on his way to homestead his farm in the United States. Hawkins was here to personally view varied aspects of American agriculture.

ST. JOHNS - John Hawkins, the 4-H Club leader, was here to personally view varied aspects of American agriculture. Hawkins was here to develop a dialogue between Australia's land and the country's wheat crop, and is expected to return next week. The main thrust of his visit, he said, was to find a way to successfully homestead his farm in the United States.

Although American agriculture is different in many respects, he said the farmer grows more wheat than any other crop in Australia. He said the system used in the early days of American agriculture is the one he hopes to use on his farm.

Hawkins said about half the land in Australia is in crops and a third in pasture. The weather of this state is similar to that of Oregon. The weather and the methods of farming are different.

Hawkins' homesteading was much like that of Michigan. Australia's land, he said, is the farmer's wheat crop, and is expected to return next week. The main thrust of his visit, he said, was to find a way to successfully homestead his farm in the United States.

Hawkins said, "I don't expect to have a large crop of wheat this fall. The soil is too rocky and the weather is too dry."

Hawkins is expected to return next week to give a series of talks on American agriculture.

St. Johns to receive safety award

St. Johns has been selected as one of Michigan's 50th anniversary patriotic cities by the American Legion.

The city was selected in a contest sponsored by the American Legion, America's oldest patriotic organization.

The city's entry in the contest, "St. Johns, a City of Patriotism," was selected from among 50 entries from across the state. The entry included a description of the city's history, its parade, and its annual Fourth of July celebration.

The American Legion's 50th anniversary patriotic cities contest is designed to recognize communities that have made contributions to their country and to foster patriotic values.

The contest is open to all communities in Michigan. Communities that are selected as patriotic cities will receive a certificate of recognition and a flag.
Youth at their best

Clinton County residents have the opportunity next week to see our youth at their best.

The annual Clinton County 4-H Fair will run Monday through Wednesday.

At the fair, young people from throughout the county, after months of hard work, will display the results of that work.

We urge you to show these young folks our respect and admiration for what they have accomplished.

The 4-H program has been and continues to be one of the best youth organizations in existence, providing young people with experiences and memories that will be of value for years to come.

Such a program cannot be successful without enthusiastic participation by those for whom it is designed—young people.

Clinton County young people certainly guarantee the success of the 4-H program.

They are an enthusiastic, hard-working credit to our county.

See for yourself at the 4-H Fair next week.

Poverty? Not at 'BIG THREE'

One of the peak jobs in the world today must be the one of getting all the news with the Big Three in the same speech.

Important—even vital—is the economic wellbeing of the nation and its impact on our lives and the lives of our children. Yet news from our companies is so meager.

It is a shocking thought that we could be getting news about a big corporation from the other side of the world and not even realizing it.

GM, for example, revealed quarterly profits for the 1956-57 fiscal year, which are more than twice the size of the average annual profit for all American companies.

But how could a big company's profits be more than twice the average annual profit for all American companies?

GM has a market value of more than $5 billion, but how could a company with a market value of more than $5 billion be making less than average quantity of profit?

And if GM can't make a profit, how can we expect other companies to make a profit?

It seems to me that the government should play a bigger role in regulating the big corporations.

The government should play a bigger role in regulating the big corporations.

The government should play a bigger role in regulating the big corporations.

That's my opinion.

Setting 'Big Mac' record straight

Dear Sir:

Your article of June 23, 1976 was the most interesting, because the passage of time had not changed the facts.

This is a special event and should be recognized as such.

The facts were:

1. In 1976, the British state was filled with rumors of advancing Americans.

2. The British state was filled with rumors of advancing Americans.

3. The British state was filled with rumors of advancing Americans.

4. The British state was filled with rumors of advancing Americans.

In the past, children of migrant workers either tagged along with their parents in the fields or remained at camp to amuse themselves as best they could. There was little meaningful educational development of those children and formal education was difficult as families moved from area to area.

For the past seven years, Clinton County has participated in the Region VI Michigan Migrant Education Program, a program which stimulates the academic background and, at the same time, provides health care for the children of migrant workers.

The Region VI program is administered through the Montcalm Area Intermediate School District and services Montcalm, Clinton, Gratiot and Ionia counties.

In Clinton County, the program provides educational and health services to children from 2 weeks old through 5-years-old. The preschool program includes children 2 to 5-years-old.

A nursery program includes children 2 weeks to 2-years-old. An elementary program includes those 6-years-old and above.

Children 10-years-old and above attend upper elementary activities. Attendance is voluntary, and the program has 110 participants.

While participating in the program, health care is provided, primarily in a preventive care capacity. For children through 5-years-old, complete physicals are provided and all children receive periodic vision and hearing screenings.

The academic and health history of the children in the summer program is not forgotten, however, once the Clinton County program concludes. The academic and health records of each child are forwarded to wherever the family may go with his family following the end of the harvest season in Clinton County.

If the family moves north in Michigan, there are similar programs with the same emphasis on health and educational services.

During the program, the family of the child is also involved.

Open houses are held to provide the opportunity to see the school and learn how it operates. Staff members also visit the migrant camps and activities are held for the family including bingo and softball games.

A dinner is held during the summer and includes participants, their parents, and community individuals who are directly or indirectly involved in the program.

Top frisbee tossers at 4-H Fair

Two of the finest frisbee players in Michigan will be at the Clinton County 4-H Fair this week. They are John Sappington and Scott Dickson, members of the Humbly Magnificent Frisbee Team which placed second at the 1976 International Frisbee Tour Tournament.

Sappington, who owns the title of National Frisbee Champion Airbornage, has thrown the frisbee over 90 miles per hour. Dickson, a member of the world champion Airbornage Frisbee team, has been practicing and throwing frisbees all summer.

Both are World Class Frisbee flyers, and anyone watching them play frisbee will be amazed at their skill and speed.

4-H youths to enter horse session at MSU

Nearly 500 4-H club members are expected to compete at the 1976 State 4-H Horse Show. There are more than 17,000 members in the county.

Shepardsville News

Every year in a while the Shepardsville Methodist Church undergoes a special day. It might be a baptism, a wedding anniversary or just a day set aside for the worship service. This year a special day for the Shepardsville Methodist Church was a very special day for Allan Albertson. Several members of his family were there to help him remember the day when he accepted Christ and began his journey as a child of God. The Albertson family was there to help him remember the day when he accepted Christ and began his journey as a child of God.

Due to the absence of the regular minister, Mrs. Dale Squiers, the Albertsons brought their message for the Sunday School. The message was on the subject of the Shepardsville Church, and it was brought by Wayne who is the current minister and Miss Ann Perrel.

The Albertsons have been members of the church since its inception, and they are very active in the church and throughout the community.

We Wish To Extend Our Congratulations to the CLINTON COUNTY 4-H CLUBS

"We salute the area boys and girls and their devoted leaders for their fine work."
