For the past year, St. Johns Junior High School students have worked on an ever-increasing "area and app" program funded by the Clinton County Education Foundation.

The program is designed to help students learn about their area and how they can contribute to making it a better place.

The program began in January and is scheduled to end in June.

During the program, students will take part in a variety of activities, including community clean-up projects, educational workshops, and hands-on learning experiences.

The program will be evaluated at the end of the school year, and the results will be used to improve the program for future years.

For more information, contact the Clinton County Education Foundation at 123 Main Street or call 555-1234.
Please be advised that the City of St. Johns will accept bids for five Walker Street, St. Johns, Michigan 48879.

Mrs. Dolma Mackinnon

ST. JOHN'S - Funeral services were held Aug. 13 at DeWitt Chapel for Mrs. Dolma Mackinnon, 84, of DeWitt, Michigan. She was the widow of El. John W. Mackinnon, who died Aug. 26, 1974.

Surviving are one son, John W. Mackinnon of Swartz Creek, and five grandchildren.

Mrs. Dolma W. Mackinnon was born Jan. 26, 1892, in St. Johns, the first, of seven children of Mr. and Mrs. M.E. Williams of St. Johns. She attended St. Johns High School and Michigan State College, working in a clothing factory, and teaching a short time in a girls' school.

A native of St. Johns, Michigan, she was married Oct. 30, 1911, to El. John W. Mackinnon of the Methodist Church Aug. 11, 1934.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church, Wesleyan Association, St. Johns, American Legion Auxiliary, St. Johns, United Methodist Women and the Eastern Star and was active in local church affairs. She was also active in charitable projects and in the local hospital auxiliary.

Survivors, in addition to her son, are two daughters, Mrs. Thelma Macgregor of DeWitt, and Mrs. Margaret Williams of DeWitt, three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Good combine operating practices should include:

- Good combine operating practices should extend to good grain handling and storage. Problems should be avoided whenever possible. This includes avoiding critical yields for energy consumption and spoilage. It also includes avoiding grain harvest and drying equipment that should be properly maintained. A critical time in this process is the time the grain for a combine is harvested. The moisture content of grains should be the same as that of the field. The grain should be considered to be in a 'comparable' condition for each combine.

- The grain is harvested and should be stored in a bin dryer. The grain should be stored in a bin dryer to reduce moisture. It should be stored in a bin dryer to reduce moisture. Marching Redwings rehearse for fall marching season.

The MSU camp is the site of the annual band camp attended by the Marching Redwings. A total of 180 students, eight counselors and band directors Walt Cole and John Speck attended the camp along with bands from seven other Michigan High Schools.

AUGUST 18, 1976

ST. JOHNS - Ready or not, fall is almost here and with fall comes an annual favorite, the St. Johns High School Marching Band.

The performances by the Marching Redwings begin under the lights in September, but much of the preparation work took place under the hot August sun at Michigan State University.

The MSU camp is the site of the annual band camp attended by the Marching Redwings. A total of 180 students, eight counselors and band directors Walt Cole and John Speck attended the camp along with bands from seven other Michigan High Schools.

Auction was held under the hot August sun at Michigan State University. Work on the camp included rehearsals, band and rehearsals on the football field.

One of the special aspects of this year's camp for St. Johns was preparing for the Sept. 25 marching band symposium to be held at Central Michigan University. The Marching Redwings will be a "clinic band" at the symposium, putting on marching performances for other high school bands and their directors.
