Redwing Athletic Assn. attempts to mend school, city park rift

A vendetta of the recently formed Redwing Athletic Assn., was completed this week with the building of the facilities of the abandoned former athletic field. With the completion of the new athletic field, the group involved in the problems is not only able to compete with other school and community groups in the city, but also to use the new field for practices and games.

The group was put together by Mrs. Richard Armstrong, president of Newcomers, and Mrs. Rollin Kluender, vice-president. The group is interested in not only practicing their athletic skills but also in the development of the facilities of the former athletic field. According to Mrs. Leon, the group is interested in the development of the facilities as a means of providing a place for the community to use.

Mrs. Leon pointed out, "We have a membership of about 25 right now," explained Mrs. Leon, "and we're getting a lot of interest from other groups and individuals." The group is interested in not only practicing their athletic skills but also in the development of the facilities of the former athletic field. According to Mrs. Leon, the group is interested in the development of the facilities as a means of providing a place for the community to use.

Memories are made here—St. Johns Homecoming 1969

Homecoming Queen Vicki Johnston and her escort Scott Bennett are flanked by David and Danny Johnston and the court. The girls and their escorts are from left, Julie McCaushey and Jeff Sully, Diane Fedewa and Dave Harpur, Ricki Stol Stochel and Gary Burk, Shirley Ellerer and Greg Kilty, Sherry Kus and Tim Durner, and Karen Lundy and Rich Stoddard.

What's it like being homecoming queen 1969? "There's just no words, no words—what can I say?" said newly crowned Vicki Johnston, Friday night after she accepted the crown and robe from last year's queen Shari Liszewski, at halftime. Until then, this year's choice was a secret. It might have been anyone of the five candidates, Dianne Fedewa, Sheri Kuntz, Karen Lundy, Juliann McCausey, or Vicki Johnston.

In years before, the identity of the queen was announced a week before the homecoming game. This year, the homecoming committee decided to incorporate some changes in the homecoming traditions, not only in honor of the new St. Johns High School, but to relate the festivities to returning alumni.

It was decided that the identity of the queen should be kept secret until homecoming night, not only to keep the students and candidates in suspense, but so that the spectators could witness the drama of passing the crown from last year's queen on to this year's queen.

Despite the new school and the suspense of the queen selection, homecoming at St. Johns was familiar in many ways. Although there was no freshman float the football team kicked the senior dream, and the band was as sharp as ever.

And as usual, the homecoming dance was still the highlight of the homecoming festivities for many.

Shirley Eisler rode on the sophomore float, constructed around the theme "Carousal." Rachelle Stachei represented the juniors on their float, built on the theme, "Love is all around." The senior float, "The Impossible Dream," was named the best and made it all possible with two little elves, Danny and Dave Johnston spreading their magic all around.

When the queen arrived at the dance after picture taking, all clustered around her and the band, Brand X, swung into some sentimental music like "Summertime." After the queen assumed her throne, the dancing began, and already, Homecoming 1969 was becoming a memory.

Chapter elects new officers

Chapter No. 89 of CSP held its last regular business meeting Tuesday evening with Mrs. Mary Washburn, president, in charge. Mrs. Elva F. Pelton, program chairman, planned a special program for the chapter's Christmas party, to be held on Dec. 9. The program chairman announced that the annual Christmas sale will be held at the chapter's headquarters, 104 E. Main St. The sale will be open to the public from 9 to 5 on Dec. 9. The sale will feature a large selection of handmade items, including hand-knitted sweaters, hand-crafted jewelry, and hand-sewn quilts.

Volunteers receive Red Cross awards

The local chapter of the American Red Cross has announced the recipients of its annual awards. The chapter recognized volunteers for their outstanding contributions to the organization. The awards ceremony took place at the chapter's headquarters, 104 E. Main St. The winners were chosen based on their dedication, commitment, and service to the organization.

LIFT STATION AT OVID

Progress on the Ovid sewer system has been slowed because of a high water table. Constructions are running pumps continuously in an effort to drain areas under construction on M-27, west of Ovid. Tunnelling under the highway and the building of the lift station is part of the final phase of the project, but construction workers were unable to give a completion date. Originally the sewer was set for completion by Sept. 1.

Court house centennial is a success

By SHELBY KABER

The Clinton County Court House Centennial ini embossed, found hundreds of visitors in all age categories taking tours of the historic building.

The tours were led by volunteers who provided insights into the history and significance of the court house. One of the highlights of the attendance was the presentation of a special exhibit on the court house's role in local history.

The event was made possible through the efforts of the Clinton County Historical Society and the Clinton County Courthouse Centennial Committee.

These Ovid ladies served punch and cookies to county supervisors and Civil Defense workers. They are, from left, Marie Elliott, Betty Bauer, Betty Bowls and Kathy Svehla.

New chef at Daley's

A former local chef has taken over at Daley's and is set to bring new menu items and an updated atmosphere to the restaurant.

The new chef, who has been trained in classical French cuisine, will focus on fresh, locally-sourced ingredients and traditional American dishes. The restaurant will also feature a new, modern cocktail menu.

Medical facility plans incomplete

The Clinton County Medical Center is still in the planning stages for a new facility in St. Johns. Discussions have been ongoing for several months, but a final decision has not yet been made.

Chamber president, Sonette Wiltse and vice president, Jim Loss recently met with an official of Provincial House, the developer of the new facility, to discuss the potential plans.

Provincial House completed the purchase in July of a 1.5-acre plot near the intersection of Park Avenue and South Street. The facility will be a state-of-the-art mental health and rehabilitation center.

In a game that was anything but normal, the visiting Saints played an offensive game of their own, scoring touchdowns on their first two possessions to grab the lead. The game was a high-scoring affair, with both teams putting up a strong performance.

The victory over Waverly was a great boost to the team's confidence, and the players were thrilled to finally be able to celebrate a win. The fans were also excited, cheering loudly as the team took the field. The atmosphere was electric, with the crowd's energy fueling the players on the field.

The team's next game is scheduled for next Saturday, and the players are looking forward to the challenge. They are ready to face any opponent and will continue to work hard to improve their skills and strategies.

The victory over Waverly was a great win for the team, and they hope to continue their winning streak in the upcoming games. The fans are eagerly awaiting the next game, and the team is excited to give them another great performance.
Ballenger re-opens St. Johns office

State Rep. William S. Ballenger is ready to meet Clinton County residents at his St. Johns office every Friday.

State Rep. William S. Ballenger has re-opened his office at 1004 E. Cass St., St. Johns, for the 1969-70 term. Ballenger will be in his office from 4 to 6 p.m. on Fridays.

According to a report received this week from Supt. William Ballenger, the two groups have met with a mediator, and a fact-finder will be called in before Grand Rapids Oct. 27. Although negotiations are still in process, the groups expect to have a mediator present by then.

Approximately 100 items are still being discussed, including salary and an agency shop clause. Any agreement reached will be retroactive for the 30 days prior to the fact-finder's decision.

Volunteer fire departments: an idea older than the nation itself

By RON KARLE

Editor

This week, being Fire Prevention week, The News sought out Chief Clare Maler for an interview about the workings of the St. Johns Volunteer Fire Department.

And while on the subject of volunteer fire departments, a little background came to light. Volunteer fire departments are responsible for the majority of this country's fire protection and it turns out that the idea of men joining together for mutual fire protection is older than the nation itself.

In 1736 Benjamin Franklin, of all people, founded the first volunteer fire department in Philadelphia and today volunteer fire fighters protecting big city suburbs and rural hamlets number well over a million men, compared to about 200,000 full time firemen located mostly in major cities.

Of the more than 24,000 fire departments around the country, more than 22,000 are volunteers.

Maier, who has been chief for six or seven years now, says the St. Johns department has openings for three or four men.

"We like to get people who are living and working in town," says Maler.

"New men are put on auxiliary for five or six months' for training," he says. They are schooled in first-aid techniques in addition to fire fighting practices, including how to run the trucks, run the ladders up, carry hoses up ladders, hooking up trucks and many other duties unknown to most laymen.

In addition to St. Johns, the department answers fire calls in Ovid, Victor, Olive, Riley, Essex and Bengal Township.

The area covered by the department figures to more than 165 square miles.

Maier says the department goes out about six miles south of St. Johns, nine miles north, six miles west and five miles east.

On a city run, the men are paid $5 for the first hour and $4 for each additional hour. On a country run the first six men at the station are paid the city rate, while every other man who shows is paid a flat $2 for standby. The six men take two shifts on a country run.

Right now there are 19 men in the department to man three rigs and a jeep used to fight grass fires.

The main rig is a 1964 corn...

SIMPLE BLESSING

Here is the River — to some an avenue on their rush westward — to others an obstacle to be crossed.

Today it brings shipsload of needed supplies to the towns along its banks, carries their products to warehouse and factory.

Tomorrow it can escape those banks, leaving death and destruction in its wake.

For the River must be ruled by man.

Yesterday it brought pure water from mountain streams to thirsty lips. Then somebody made it his gutter.

Like all our mixed blessings the River can help or hurt. It is just one of those gifts of God whose value will always depend on our good sense and initiative, our respect for God's order and our concern for the needs of others.

Call it a by-product if you please — but one of the results of faithful religious worship and service is that so many mixed blessings become real blessings!

SHE'S A DANDY -- THE TRUCK, THAT IS

Interior of Chevrolet's new Titan 90 aluminum cab has heavy-duty, diesel tractor resembles pilot's compartment of modern jetliner. Wrought-iron panel grids all gauges and controls within easy reach of hand and eye; permitting monitoring with minimum eye movement.

Large smoked glass windows, heavy insulation, deluxe bucket seat, fresh-air heating and ventilation, and adjustable steering column that adjust to several positions make for driver comfort. Available are such items as radio and air conditioning.

WIN $20!

IN EVENT OF TIES, PRIZE WILL BE DIVIDED EQUALLY.

Join in the fun! You can win $20 cash, paid by The Clinton County News each week to the person who guesses the most winners of the high school and college football games listed on this page.

1. Read every ad on this page. An important game will be listed in each ad for your selection.
2. On a separate sheet of paper, write the names of each merchant on this page and after his name, the name of the team you select as the winner of the game listed in his ad. List in sequence 1 to 20.
3. Be sure and print your name and address plainly on your entry.
4. Mail your entry to Contest Editor, The Clinton County News, St. Johns, before 5 p.m. Friday or deliver it personally to The Clinton County News office before 5 p.m. Friday. Mail must be postmarked no later than 6 p.m. Friday.
5. Contest winners will be announced each week in The Clinton County News.
6. Only one entry per person is allowed.
7. Remember—Your guesses plus the names of the merchants, must be on a SEPARATE sheet of paper . . . not on this page.
8. Six copies of left for tie breaker.

More...

A note of apology is extended to the St. Johns city officials, St. Johns county and school board. Our comments of last week implied that the proposal for a long term lease on the existing airport was advanced by the school board. This was in error. The proposal came from a committee for the long term lease of city-owned property with an alternate plan of the school board.

Be that as it may our point of issue was not with actions by either body nor the long term lease proposal. Our concern was, and still is, with commonly responses and the importance of a well informed citizenry. There is no substitute for effective communication by those holding official positions.

We continue to support this belief regardless of the author or action taken on any proposal.

Amid the concerns over the future use of the athletic field there must be some basis for optimism. It appears that school officials are reluctant to invest in improvements at the facility. And in any case we are not seeing any realization of the benefits to invest from their investments.

The city commission, on the other hand, appears to have decided the proposed improvements beyond any extended lease situation suggests no difficulty in continuing a year to year agreement. It is the desire of both the city and school. We hope that the city council will continue to provide a good athletic facility. The existing complex of swimming pool, city park, football field and field house, along with Smith Field and fair buildings, provides a natural base on which to build. While we agree that a need for legal outlets of any party's rights, there seems to be an overwhelming benefit for the entire city and school district to improve what is already existing and located so favorably.

Unless the parties are willing to see a recently new athletic complex be dug, we see little chance for the present facility to be used for purposes clearly not intended for purposes previously used which, apparently, are highly satisfactory to taxpayers who take advantage of the area. The desire of both parties to extend the athletic complex is understandable, the annual leasing money presently exchanged could and should be used for the development of an athletic-recreational complex of which rural and city residents could be equally proud. It seems to be a case of either a hang-up after the opening of a beautiful new pool and the potential for a completely new facility which would enhance it and the city as well.

Another view

Senator Edward Kennedy's attorneys claimed that "a gathering crescendo of public support" bolstered the school fund in their arguments. Our life sea we then can chart,

That first, all the darkness was in me,

But each must mature and plant the seed.

As we inwardly search in our journey in life,

As we obtain more knowledge of our inner-strife,

And as we inwardly search in our journey in life,

The path of darkness becomes less obscure

As we inwardly search in our journey in life,

The path of darkness becomes less obscure

But each must mature and plant the seed.

As we obtain more knowledge of our inner-strife,

There were circumstances in which it was hard to resist the temptation.

Weed control in soybeans

A combination of Anpalex and Lorsban is said to be a standard of control by cruciferous herbicides for soybeans, according to reports by William Hopf, Michigan State University extension weed specialists.

"This combination will work better than either after drought conditions, when control of both crops is needed," Hopf said. "We recommend that the herbicides be used within a few days after planting." He noted that both crops can be planted in a single bed, allowing for a combination of Lorsban and either of the two or both of the herbicides or both levels of rains will come BlackBerry.

"The key to good weed control, he says, is to "Get it in the ground now." In an"..."april 1970..." In other words, the farmer should want to worry about the problem in early spring, when the herbicides can be used.

"If you will do your planning all year round, the weeds will go away and the weeds will get away," Hopf added. "Don't wait too long."
