Request for sewer hook-up causes disagreement at DeWitt City Council meeting

The community of DeWitt, Michigan, is facing a disagreement over the request for sewer hook-up for a new subdivision. The subdivision is located in the city limits of DeWitt, and the residents of the subdivision are requesting a sewer connection to the city sewer system. However, the city council is hesitant to approve the request due to the cost of extending the sewer lines.

Registration and further details can be obtained at the DeWitt City Hall on Monday evenings, or by contacting the City Clerk at (517) 926-1234.

Back Through the Years

From the Clinton County News, 1973, 1968 & 1961

A large crowd turned out for the funeral of Mrs. William Richfield on Tuesday morning at the Clinton County Community Center, where the late Mrs. Richfield was to have been laid to rest.
The Richfield High School band, under the direction of Mr. Richfield, played during the funeral, and the Clinton County Community Center was decorated with flowers and candles.

In the meantime, a group of volunteers was busy setting up the community center for the funeral. They were assisted by the Clinton County Fire Department, which provided the necessary equipment and personnel.

The funeral service was attended by many members of the Richfield family and friends, who paid their respects to the late Mrs. Richfield.

The Richfield High School band played several songs during the funeral, including "The Star-Spangled Banner" and "The National Anthem." The Clinton County Community Center was filled with the sound of music and the mourners were in deep sorrow.

After the service, the volunteers removed the decorations and turned the community center back over to the Clinton County Fire Department, which will now be responsible for maintaining the facility.

The Richfield High School band, under the direction of Mr. Richfield, will continue to provide music for special occasions and events in the future.

Meeting recalls past for local club
FOWLEROCT 1.- It was with great pleasure that the members of the St. Johns Woman's Club were able to participate in the 90th Anniversary celebration of the organization's founding. The Women's Literary Club was incorporated as the St. Johns Woman's Club on October 22, 1891, and now celebrates this milestone with a weekend of events.

The weekend kicked off on Thursday, October 22, with a special sale event. From 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., the club opened its doors for a sale of household items, books, dishes, toys, jewelry, pots and pans, and other miscellaneous gifts.

Each member was in charge of operating the Weekend Post, a program and business meeting with Mrs. Ruth Babcock as president, followed by the installation of new members for the 1975-1976 club year. The program was hosted by Mrs. Robert R. Babcock.

The installation was followed by a Tour of Historic Homes, where the tour began at the residence of Mrs. J. G. Matthews, who called the first meeting in 1891 at her home at 100 N. Oakland St. where the club met for many years. Members were invited to tour the first three presidents of "The Women's Literary Society" (now known as the Woman's Literary Club), Mrs. Babcock (president from 1891-1908), Mrs. Florence Kelley (president from 1899-1900), and Mrs. Gene Elizabeth Bell (president from 1912-1913). The tour concluded with a visit to the residence of Mrs. Marvin "Mary" Babcock, who called the first meeting in 1891 at her home. Members were invited to tour the residence of Mrs. Marvin "Mary" Babcock, who called the first meeting in 1891 at her home.

Various personalities of past Woman's Club presidents were recalled at the first meeting of this year, which took place on Oct. 3. The program followed a "tradition of talents of the members. Each member was in charge of operating the Weekend Post, a program and business meeting with Mrs. Ruth Babcock as president, followed by the installation of new members for the 1975-1976 club year.

St. Paul Lutheran ladies honor senior citizens in Fowler

The ladies of St. Paul Lutheran Church, Fowler, on Thursday, Oct. 1, hosted the annual senior citizens' fall outing. A Luncheon was served by the kitchen staff of the Church, with Mrs. Erichson in charge of the ladies' luncheon. There were many who were over seventy, a few who were over eighty, and a few who were over ninety. The highlight of the evening was the Presentation of Awards. It was a beautiful evening with a large group of people attending and a gift of free admission to the movie "Hello, Dolly" was received by Mrs. Walter Bays, who is seventy years of age. There were many who attended the event and had a wonderful time, including Mrs. Helen Meach, former Editor of this newspaper.

The United Methodist Church Fellowship will hold a lady's tea next week at 1:30 pm in the fellowship hall. The theme is "Thanksgiving," and the ladies are invited to attend.

Trouble with Christmas gifts?

No matter how cautious and careful you are, any accident or permanent injury can happen to a family member or close friend. Even a minor injury can be quite painful and expensive. Sometimes, it can lead to permanent disability or death. It can also cost you and your family a lot of money.

Tips for safe travel during the holidays:

1. Wear a seatbelt. Buckle up is the best way to protect yourself and your passengers in case of an accident.
2. Drive at a safe speed. Avoid speeding and adjust your speed according to the weather and road conditions.
3. Avoid distractions. Do not text, talk on the phone, or eat while driving.
4. Stay sober. Do not drive if you have been drinking alcohol.
5. Leave extra time. Plan your route and allow extra time for travel.

Remember, when you are driving, your family is depending on you. Be safe and drive responsibly. If you notice someone driving recklessly, call the police. Together, we can keep our roads safe and our loved ones safe.

DeWitt is latest shut-out victim of Fowler Eagles -- Weberville upsets Potterville

Fowler Eagles -- Webberville must be considered smarting from an upset at the CMAC crown. The Eagles will put that record on the scoreboard when they face DeWitt Friday night for Homecoming and the senior running back, Dan Forei, will be back in action. Fowler has now yet to be beaten in 15 games and their defense is again solid. The Bees will be at Stockbridge Oct. 24 and Dansville the next week against Portland St. Pats.

After DeWitt's loss to Fowler, the Eagles are 6-0 on the season with 4-0 CMAC by upsetting previously unbeaten DeWitt. The Schmitt to Koenigsknecht connection was used 5 times and a total of 14 points.

DeWitt will get their clock stopped at Pinckney Oct. 17. The Bees are coming off a scoreless victory over St. Johns Oct. 10. The victory gives Pewamo - Westphalia a 3-1 CMAC record and noticeable, as 14 points behind to put the game out of reach. The game with DeWitt is Oct. 24.

The victory gives Pewamo - Westphalia the 20th point. St. Johns came back to score 10 points in the final period, putting the game 6-0 in favor of St. Johns.

The Schmitt to Koenigsknecht pass during the second period was voted on for 17 points. St. Johns is 2-3 for the season and DeWitt 5-0 for the season.

Bath looks for a tough game Thursday night at St. Johns.

DeWitt is now 5-0 for the season and the Eagles are 6-0 on the year. The Bees are coming off a 3-1 CMAC record and noticeable, as 14 points behind to put the game out of reach. The game with DeWitt is Oct. 24.

The Bath defense was contained at the line of scrimmage with 14 points and held Bath to 7 to win.

Bath held the scoring edge for the 20th point. St. Johns came back to score 10 points in the final period, putting the game 6-0 in favor of St. Johns.

The Schmitt to Koenigsknecht pass during the second period was voted on for 17 points. St. Johns is 2-3 for the season and DeWitt 5-0 for the season.
