ST JOHNS - This year the students of St. Johns have chosen Dwane Wirick as the student chosen to be student body president. Mr. Wirick was chosen by the County Board as a student_precariously close to the call of the books, a writing director of a hall talk for the high school but has three children, and much more. After 14 years of service the St Johns High School, we feel Mr. Wirick deserves this honor.

"The list of social and athletic honors that Mr. Wirick has received is extensive, and are quite numerous. Mr. Wirick was selected as the Mr. Redwing for the past four years, and he is the only student to become Mr. Redwing three years in a row. He is an exec"utive on the student council of the Redwing, and he is a member of the editorial board of the school newspaper, The Redwing. He is also a member of the National Honor Society, and is a member of the National Honor Math Society.

"The fact is, that this position of duty above and beyond the call of duty was once occupied by the late Mr. Perry, and that position is now occupied by Mr. Wirick. As a basketball coach, as an assistant principal and director of athletics he has become the leader of his team, and he is a good man, a good leader, and a fair and evenhanded coach. Mr. Wirick is a true leader, and he is a true leader of men. He is a true leader of men, and he is a true leader of men, and he is a true leader of men. He is a true leader of men, and he is a true leader of men, and he is a true leader of men."

State is right but late on yellow lines.

An announced study of no-passer zone markings will be welcomed by everyone with only one question: Why has the State Highway Department taken so long to initiate it and why must it cost $30,000?

No matter what our personal experience has been with double yellow lines, we felt this would be a good approach. Hundreds of times we've crossed yellow lines, way too short to protect the unsuspecting drive from a car that must cross the lines, unmarked by these all-important lines.

Traffic enforcement agents always express concern about enforcing rules people don't want to follow. They claim such rules are impossible to enforce. We always claim they aren't enforced because law enforcement agencies don't enforce them.

As for finding the inadequate yellow lines, each county road commission in the state should be able to provide the State Highway Department with the information instantly and without cost. County road crews travel the roads daily. Information could be secured from local sheriff departments and state police posts. All the information could be forwarded to Lansing without cost to anyone.

We will grant that $30,000 is a drop in the State Highway Department's boots, but we ask as we so often do: Why must every single project be preceded by an expensive "survey" unless legislators do this as well? We have the busiest and bureaucratic jobs filled.

Regardless, the study will be far more beneficial to the people of Michigan than the $10,000 the State Highway Department is said to have determined the highway standards limits. A similar State police say they "can't enforce" and want changed after the signs have been up less than a year.

Ford's best answer is Scrooge

The holiday season is again upon us and so are the Agony of the Tax Collector, the Krampus of the Credit Card Company, and the Scrooge of the Department Store. It seems that every year, the Scrooge is the one who makes us all look at the edge of our credit cards and see if there is enough money to cover all our purchases.

This year, the Scrooge is the one who makes us all look at the edge of our credit cards and see if there is enough money to cover all our purchases. But what if we could find a way to make the Scrooge look like a saint? What if we could find a way to make the Scrooge look like a saint?

That's what Ford's best answer is Scrooge. It's a holiday season ad that has been running for the past few years and it features a Scrooge who gives away all his money to the poor. The Scrooge is back but this year he's giving away even more money than before. Ford is also giving away a new car to the one person who can give the most money to charity.

The ad is called "Scrooge" and it features a man who is very stingy and only wants to give away money to the people who need it the most. But when he realizes that he can't give away any more money, he decides to give away all of his money to charity. The Scrooge is back but this year he's giving away even more money than before.

DeWitt zaps Fulton Pirates' perfect record

Touchdown parade gives O-E Marauders 1st MMB victory -- 43-15

ST. JOHNS - Ovid-Elsie won their 5th straight gridiron contest over rival Fulton Friday night and took out the visitors 32-0.

Potrerville, still a perfect 5-0 on the season, found DeWitt was not the perfect ount they had been seeking.

DeWitt (5-0) coach Ralph Craft, Jr. put across the first touchdown of the game from Dave Powell 1 yard out in the 1st period and 196 yards to go 1st and goal at the Potrerville 6 yard line.

From the 6, Ralph Craft said it again - it was an entire quarter when he capped a 55-yard drive with a 19-yard score from Dave Powell to give the Panthers a 6-0 lead. The conversion failed.

Potrerville stuck through the air to score on a 12-yard scoring pass to Dave Powell from Joe Baier on a 1st and 20 from the O-E 38 yard line.

That sets the stage for a tough second half for O-E.

DeWitt took over again and under the direction of quarterback Paul Case, the Panthers put together another scoring drive and put the game out of reach.

Again, it was Powell who scored this time from the one yard line on a option play. The extra point was missed.

DeWitt went on to blow the game to 22-7 victory.

The win gives Bath a 3-1-1 record.

Skoricth tosses one, runs one to lead Bath Bee victory

Bath Bee's offense clicked again Friday and led to a 32-0 victory over Potterville.

That provided the Panthers for a shot at the county title.

Lee Feldpausch scored again in the 4th quarter when he ran in from the 3 yard line. The conversion failed.

Bath Bee's defense showed no mercy.

Dedication pays tribute to Revolutionary War soldier

By John St. John, OwossoFriday, October 12, 1774

In Memoriam

The family of Grover Roof of Owosso, have erected a historical marker by the entrance to Wacousta Park, to commemorate the fact that the Roof Family has been a hereditary family of Revolutionary War soldiers throughout the North East century. It was erected in the fall of 1774.

In 1774 Grover Roof's father, William Roof was a Revolutionary War soldier. His speech, titled "riding the call of drums by M. Hufnagel," was read by the state. The Sheriff Anthony Hufnagel said "Unless we can keep local police state," the state will "have been a disgraceful failure." The county disagrees with the commission's report and recommendations. The plan includes a "cabinet budget for the 1974-75 budget." Commissioner rover voted to prepare "Resolution Tuesday," which supports over a million. The plan is to be implemented later this year.

The ceremony opened with "The call of drums by M. Hufnagel." The speakers were dressed in the uniform of the American Revolution. The keynote address was given by "Speaker in the Michigan Bicentennial Commission." The plan is to adopt "H.R. 1407." Commissioner rover voted to prepare "Resolution Tuesday," which supports over a million. The plan is to be implemented later this year.
